

1 Read the advertisements. Circle the important information and underline one exciting detail in each one.

Space Tourism Presentation – the vacation of the future!

Come to the Exhibition Center and find out more!

Try on real space suits and visit space accommodations.

Find out about future trips and activities.

Competition to win a trip into space!

Meet the pilot and the crew!

Opens Sunday 10 am

Come Stargazing at the National Observatory!

A rare opportunity to observe the stars and planets through the country's biggest telescope!

Meet famous astronomers!

You may even discover a new star!

Tea and coffee available. Bring your own sandwiches.

Saturday June 21st, from 7 pm until 12 midnight

Aceton University presents Jeff Turner

Come and hear a real astronaut speak about space!

1 hour talk with photos and video

A chance to ask the questions you want to know about!

Meet the astronaut and have your photo taken.

Thursday 6:30 pm

2 Read and complete to make the dialogue polite.

Could you please You're welcome. Mr. Lister. It's Lee here.
I'm afraid Thanks, Mr. Lister. Yes, please.

Dad: Hello.

Lee: Oh, hello (1) Mr. Lister. It's Lee here. Can I speak to Simon, please?

Dad: No, (2) _____ he's not here. Can I take a message?

Lee: (3) _____ Could you tell him that Jeff Turner, the astronaut, is giving a talk at the university on Thursday?

Dad: Right. Are you going?

Lee: Yes. You get to meet him and ask him questions! I'm going at 6 o'clock. It starts at 6:30.

Dad: OK, I'll tell him.

Lee: (4) _____ ask him to call me back? If he wants to go, I'll get him a ticket.

Dad: Yes, I'll ask him to call you.

Lee: (5) _____ Bye!

Dad: (6) _____ Bye, Lee!

3 Write a dialogue to leave a message about one of the other events. 